

Shanda Parrish

Biography

Shanda L. Parrish is a long-time resident of Northwest Missouri. She grew up in Bethany MO and now resides in Stanberry, Missouri with her husband Patrick who has cattle and Parrish Skid Loader Service. Shanda has been in banking for roughly 35 years. She is presently the Vice-President /Branch Manager of Commerce Bank in St. Joseph MO for 21 years. Prior to that, she was in Maryville for 14 years in bank management at the same location just different names. Farm & Home Savings, Roosevelt Bank, Mercantile Bank, First Star, US Bank.

Shanda is a committed member of the community of St. Joseph and Stanberry. She serves on numerous boards, committees, and task forces in leadership positions. Some of those include: Current Mayor of Stanberry, Stanberry Betterment, Mosaic Auxiliary, Children's Advocacy Board that encompasses Northwest Missouri and Over the Edge Event, and Chamber of Commerce, Maximize NWMO, and now Community Foundation. Past organizations include United Way, Girl Scouts, Leadership St. Joseph, Performing Arts, Trails West, Maryville and St. Joseph Rotary Club, and Red Cross.

Shanda and her husband Patrick have 2 daughters. Keisha and her husband Mitch have 4 children, Landon, Leah, Rowan, and Rylee. Karissa and her husband have 2 children Chase and Carson. All children and grandchildren live within 10 miles from Grandma Shanda because they are a priority in life.