

Jerry Mogg Biography

Jerry Mogg is a retired CPA with over 50 years of experience in various roles in public accounting for firms ranging in size from International, National, Regional and Local. He also worked as a Certified Financial Planner, CFP and was licensed so he could make recommendations for using securities and insurance. Jerry is proud of his work with clients and recommending solutions for their financial goals.

Jerry has worked with a number of Community Foundations in the Kansas City area before the Community Foundation of Northwest Missouri was formed. He has worked with many nonprofit groups of various sizes during his long career in public accounting. Jerry is currently the Treasurer of the John Whitmer Historic Association, JWHA. He is on the Investment Oversight Committees for Oregon California Trails Association, OCTA and JWHA. Also, he is on the Board of OCTA's Gateway Chapter for our area.

Jerry has an undergraduate degree from Graceland University and a graduate degree from the University of Kansas which was technical in accounting, auditing and tax. He loves history and participates in a number of local historic groups including The Pony Express, St. Joseph Museum, The Patee House Museum and The History of Accountancy in this area going back close to a century.

Jerry is a Lay Minister in The Community of Christ and has served this church in many leadership roles at the World, Missions, Camps and local levels. In addition, he supports many other organizations such as Graceland University, Outreach International, Health Ed Connect and Communities of Christ Health Ministries and Historic Sites.