

Kathy Crawford

Biography

Kathy Crawford is a retired physical education teacher from the Savannah R-III school district after 28 years of service to the district. She now supervises teacher candidates for Northwest Missouri State University. She is active in her church, PEO, and sits on the board for Andrew County Museum. Kathy is married to Kelly Crawford. They have two grown children and five grandchildren. Kathy enjoys hiking, biking, and travel.